SULZER RECOGNIZES GLYNN, LOSES IN THE FIRST CLASH AT IMPEACHMENT TRIAL

Impeachment Court by Unanimous Vote Turns Down Challenge of Senators, All the Precedents Being Against It.

GOVERNOR OPENS FIRE ON NEW BATTLE LINE

Counsel Attacks Validity of Proceeding by Declaring Assembly Could Not Impeach at Extra Session.

By Samuel M. Williams. (Staf Correspondent of The Evening World.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 19.-Gov. Sulzer this afternoon recognized for the first time his own temporary deposition from office and the right the lewelry, eliverware and bric-a-brac. of Lieut.-Gov. Glynn to full authority as Acting Governor. Private Scoretary Platt, on behalf of Mr. Sulzer, wrote an official letter to Mr. Glynn transmitting papers in an extradition case and also commutation of sentence of certain prisoners. The letter read:

"The judicial department of this State having at the present dme decided that executive functions should be performed by your self as Acting Governor, under advice of counsel, I transmit for your attention a letter from the District-Attorney of the County of New York, dated Sept. 18, with inclosures relating to the extradition of one Moses Gutman.

"I also transmit herewith certain commutation sheets cerning certain prisoners, whose terms are about to expire by commutation, pursuant to statute, which, I am informed, under the present circumstances, require your attention and signature."

Moses Gutman, whose extradition is sought, is a fugitive from setice from New York State, and his extradition has been requested tarsugh the Department of State at Washington. He is under arrest at

FAUROT CALLS SCHMIDT MASTER OF CRIMINALS

Death Certificates Found in His Possession Would Have Enabled Him to Dispose of Other Bodies.

Through his counsel, Alphonse Koelble, Hans Schmidt, the murderer of Anna Aumueller, made a statement to the press this afternoon in which he said that if he could convince the authorities of Louisville that he murdered eight-year-old Alma Kellner in that city in 1909 he would contess that he committed that crime and thus save John Wendling, who is

"They can send me to the electric chair but once," said Schmidt, 'so what difference would it make if they accused me of one murder or O two or half a dozen murders? If I could get this man Wendling out of prison I would confess that I committed the crime for which he is suffering; but it would not be true and I couldn't show that it was true. I was in Louisville when the little girl was killed, but had nothing to do
